“I cried. I laughed. I didn’t want the ride to end. This book blows the dust off our hearts, showing us how to see our past with more clarity and move forward with renewed faith and purpose. Truly a life-transforming, courageous, and inspiring journey.”

Linda Sivertsen – award-winning & NYT bestselling co-author, magazine editor, and environmentalist.

“Nothing touches us more meaningfully than the story of a parent’s care for a child-in-need. As the father of a diabetic, I understand Julie’s roller coaster of despair, frustration, and hope...”

Alan Thicke - actor, songwriter, game and talk show host.

“From one Mother Warrior to another, I have deep respect and compassion for Julie’s brave and loving journey in search of a cure for her daughter, Emma...”

Jenny McCarthy - model, comedian, actress, author and activist.
